  - Share knowledge about implementing INSPIRE within NMCA's
  - Share information about INSPIRE in general (e.g. European Commission) and INSPIRE related activities
- Means to achieve these aims and objectives
  - BaseCamp
  - Webinars
  - Workshops

KEN Objectives

- How do the KEN objectives meet/align with the strategic objectives of EG?
  1. Provide the voice of our members
    - European Commission
      - Joint activities with JRC and MIG Thematic Clusters
    - INSPIRE community: report about INSPIRE KEN activities during INSPIRE conferences
  2. Develop the network of members
    - *By definition: KEN is Knowledge Exchange Network
  3. Develop the European Location Framework
    - ELF project is finished but ELS begin!
    - INSPIRE KEN to provide information about ELS

Adding Strategic Value to Member NMCA's

- What added value does the KEN provide?
- How does the KEN contribute to the member organisations?
  - Support those struggling with INSPIRE
    - Increase practical knowledge about regulations, tools, ...
    - Discuss on common issues
      - psychologic help (avoiding to feel alone)
      - clarifications on issues
      - provide rationale for decisions (comparison- benchmarking)
  - Help in decision making for INSPIRE implementation
  - Help for coordination – communication at national level

Value of Participation

- What will members gain by participating in the KEN?
  - Opportunity to get general news about INSPIRE related activities
    - MIG
    - UN-GGIM
    - ...
  - Better opportunity to attend or contribute to the INSPIRE KEN events
  - Help to implement INSPIRE
  - Registration on BaseCamp does not imply any commitment for future work!
