Dear Members, dear colleagues,

Recruitment of Secretary General & Executive Director, EuroGeographics

I hope this finds you, your family and your colleagues well, and wish a speedy recovery to all that have become ill. Our thoughts and prayers are with them, as they are for those health workers dealing with the pandemic during these very challenging times.

I wrote to you on 05 February to advise you that we will be recruiting a new Secretary General & Executive Director for EuroGeographics following Mick Cory's decision to retire. As I explained previously, the Internal Rules and Regulations of the Association require that the post should be filled by selecting the most appropriate candidate from an open competition based on a job description and selection criteria provided by the Management Board. We have now completed the job description, and although delayed due to the escalation of the COVID-19 pandemic, we will be advertising the post later this week. Members of the Association are welcome to be a source of candidates for this open market competition, and therefore I am writing to provide you with a copy of the advertisement. It will appear on our website and social media, as well as on relevant recruitment websites, and we will refer to it in our newsletter as well. I would also like to invite you to circulate the information about this important post within your own organisation.

Can I take this opportunity to wish you a peaceful Easter, and hope that you, your families and all our colleagues stay safe.

Yours sincerely
